FROM OUR GUESTS...

"I [wanted] to let you know just how wonderful everything was for us at Scarritt-Bennett. Everybody involved really gave a "thumbs up" on Scarritt-Bennett. The Governor's Office thought the location was wonderful and was truly impressed with the greeting, attention to detail, food and the meeting space. I can't adequately express how appreciative I was to be working with you on this event. A simple thank you just doesn't seem to have the emphasis that I need."

Susan McMillan, Assistant to the Commissioner, TN Dept. of Correction, Criminal Justice Summit

"I just wanted to...say thank you! The banquet room turned out beautiful, the food was amazing, and we couldn't have asked for anything more!"

Jessica Foulk, Chi Beta Chi

"Want you to know how deeply grateful I am for all your amazing help creating the event this past weekend. I'll never be such a 'newbie' to large meetings, and will recommend you and the center whenever I have the opportunity..."

Kimberly Whitney, Ph.D., Minister for Higher and Theological Education, United Church of Christ, Cleveland, Ohio

"The Chapel alone sealed the deal...I really truly enjoyed getting married there. The staff...did an excellent job accommodating me and all my wedding needs. I highly recommend Wightman Chapel."

John and Emma, Franklin TN

BUILT IN 1924 as Scarritt College, a missionary training school, today Scarritt-Bennett Center is a non-profit center committed to social justice issues. Income from rental of our historic facilities helps us to present a variety of programs throughout the year focusing on social justice issues, cultural diversity, women's empowerment and interfaith understanding.
