

JOE FEAGIN

WHITE MEN ON RACE

Friday, Feb 5

7 - 8:30p

Dr. Feagin will discuss some of the latest, most groundbreaking research that refutes the common myth that we live in a "post-racial" society.

Feagin will candidly talk about the real issues behind racism, and with information gathered from groups of college students, white men and African-Americans, will explore how racism is perceived and experienced in today's America.

Free and open to the public. RSVPs are encouraged, but not required. To RSVP, call 615.340.7557 or email aelliott@scarrittbennett.org.

WORKSHOP 9a - noon

U.S. HISTORY MY TEACHER NEVER TOLD ME ABOUT

Discover the startling realities about the myths, misinformation, and omissions of mainstream American history: What kind of role did enslaved black soldiers play in winning the Civil War? Did George Washington's family have black family members? Why are some pieces of American history swept under the rug? Join nationally-renowned sociologist Dr. Joe Feagin as he discusses the pieces of history not typically taught in American history classes.

$15 per person (includes continental breakfast). Teachers admitted at no cost (must show valid teachers' ID).

Pre-registration required. Download registration form online or call 615.340.7557 or email aelliott@scarrittbennett.org.
