

HOT TOPICS

on current, critical issues facing our community

JUNE 4

Featuring Dwight Lewis,
The Tennessean

“The responsibility of media
in social justice”

JUNE 11

Featuring Mike Hodge,
Neighborhoods Resource Center

“Gentrification in Nashville:
Revitalizing neighborhoods or displacing neighbors?”

JUNE 18

Featuring Elias Feghali,
Tennessee Immigrant and Refugee
Rights Coalition

“Immigration”

JULY 16

Featuring Kasar Abdulla,
Tennessee Immigrant and Refugee
Rights Coalition

“What it means to be a Muslim woman in Nashville”

JULY 23

Featuring Tony Garr,
Tennessee Health Care Campaign

“The new health care law:
What’s in it for me & Tennessee?”

JULY 30

Featuring Won Choi,
Nashville NAACP’s
Education Committee

“Will the neighborhood schools model improve or resegregate
Nashville’s schools?”

A discussion series at Scarritt-Bennett.

Looking for a place to talk about the local and national issues affecting you and your neighbors right now? Then “Hot Topics” is for you!

Several Fridays this summer we’ll focus on a specific issue, hear from a local expert, and then open up the floor for a group discussion on the issue. Join us for lunch to share your opinion with your neighbors – and to hear theirs.

12 - 1p (participants may arrive starting at 11:15a for lunch)

Pre-registration for each session required • $10 fee for program & lunch • Space limited to the first 15 people

To register: Call (615) 340-7557, e-mail aelliott@scarrittbennett.org, or visit www.scarrittbennett.org

THE DIALOGUE HOUSE

@

 SCARRITT
BENNETT

1007 18TH AVE. S.,
NASHVILLE, 37212

Free parking available
in SBC Parking Lot B, accessible from 18th Ave. S

SCARRITTBENNETT.ORG